

David Jones grew up in Ohio and is a US Air Force Veteran and came to Austin in the early 90s. David is an experienced, accomplished, and dynamic Health and Wellness Advocate with over 20 years of experience. He has a master's degree in business management. He previously worked as a Code Enforcement Assistant, Licensed Insurance Agent, and HIV/AIDS Education and Prevention Specialist. He has volunteered for several organizations in Austin. Currently, he is focused on tenant's rights. David is also an experienced Toastmasters speaker. David helped create and design the LIV website. Mr. Jones lives in Austin.

David is someone who loves you "all the time" simultaneously, he is mad as hell and won't take it no more on Texas's bad politics.